

Job Title: Laborer-Fiber

Location: Fort Benton, MT

Position Description:

The Laborer position will report to the Plant and or Shift Supervisor and perform duties in an industrial hemp processing facility. Duties will include but not limited to tasks such as unloading trucks, driving a forklift and other equipment, packaging and palletizing product and general facility cleaning.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Prioritize and maintain safe working practices and a safe working environment
- Perform necessary good manufacturing practices
- Cleaning facility and machinery to ensure work areas are free of trip and slip hazards
- Troubleshooting and fixing machinery as needed
- Loading and unloading materials
- Package materials
- Demonstrated ability to learn new jobs and cross train on all positions in the oilseeds and or fiber facilities

Required Skills/Abilities:

- Verbal and written communication
- Attention to detail
- Problem solving
- Team oriented
- Proactive critical thinking

Education and Experience:

- High school diploma or equivalent, additional education or training a plus
- Prior experience Operating heavy equipment and forklifts a plus
- Basic understanding of computers and math comprehension
- Prior manufacturing (grain or food processing) or agriculture experience a plus
- Ability to exhibit good work habits, including attendance and punctuality
- Must have the ability to climb stairs, lift, bend, kneel and stand for long periods, work in confined spaces, work with heights, dusty environment, and hot and cold temperatures.

